A PARTIAL tabulation of the WBAI Listener Questionnaire has yielded an intriguing range of political inclinations among our subscribers. In answer to, "Would you care to describe your political point of view," we received the following:

"Conservative in action — Liberal in thought"

"Rugged individualist who believes in the Welfare State for others"

"Others describe it as 'Left' "

"Conservative - Progressive"

"Independent and Unpredictable"

"Progress and to hell with dogma"

"Not in two lines"

"Thinking Radical"

"Disenchanted"

"Split-vote Republican"

"Unenlightened Liberal"

and so on . . .

We are still receiving questionnaires and contributions; but we're far from the $50,000 goal needed to assure WBAI's continuing life. If you have not already done so, please send your tax-deductible check as soon as you come to the end of this sentence . . .

Note on a return envelope in which a check was sent . . . "92 years old . . . no reading ability . . . WBAI is a Godsend."

---

THE COVER: A bark painting of a snake, a crocodile and a cassowary from the Oenpelli district of Arnhem Land, the northern territory of Australia. The art of Oceania will be discussed on Saturday, June 17, at 1:30 P.M., by Douglas Newton, Curator of the Museum of Primitive Art, New York City, in the second program in the series "An Introduction to Primitive Art."
